Transition Purpose and Associated Facts

- The Soldier for Life - Transition Assistance Program (SFL-TAP), formally Army Career and Alumni Program (ACAP), is the Army's transition program responsible for providing Soldiers with the counseling, employment and education workshops, and seminars required to achieve Veterans Opportunity to Work (VOW) and Career Readiness Standards (CRS) mandated compliance.
- All Soldiers completing 180 days of continuous Active Duty service are required to meet the VOW/CRS requirements. Eligible Soldiers will begin receiving transition counseling and employment assistance 12-18 months prior to transitioning from Active Duty or 24 months prior to retirement.
- The program has counselors and staff world-wide, including mobile transition teams to support the National Guard and Army Reserves at both the home and demobilization stations. Our 24-hour/7-day a week (24/7) Virtual SFL-TAP Center is available at either www.acap.army.mil or 1-800-325-4715 respectively.
- The Army is currently renovating the way it transitions Soldiers from Active Duty in order to successfully "prepare" and "connect" them to meaningful employment and education opportunities.
- SFL-TAP is a "commander's program" requiring direct leadership involvement during each Soldier's transition process.

Soldier for Life Connect Strategy

Command Team's Responsibility

Arrival at unit

- Ensure leaders develop and/or update Soldier's Individual Development Plan; document within Army Career Tracker (ACT) system.

Soldier Life Cycle

- Encourage Soldiers to consult Army Continuing Education Services (ACES) for civilian education and Army Community Services (ACS) for family employment and finances/budget; and use Career Counselors for MOS Crosswalk-GAP Analysis, individual self assessment, and the Army Learning Management System (ALMS) to assist in military education and training.

Transition Decision

- Support career counselor activities to the greatest extent in accordance with current policies and regulations.
- Eliminate stigma of transition decisions; support the Soldier.
- Continuously engage SFL-TAP personnel and use ACAP XXI reporting system to track transition data and make informed decisions on eligible Soldiers.

Transition Actions

- Soldier must begin NLT 12 Months prior to transition from active duty.
- Be aware of exemption policies and consult SFL-TAP prior to exempting any Soldier.
- Support Soldier in attending local TAP when available or use virtual services (remote duty or Reserve units not located near installation) to assist; consult SFL-TAP to determine appropriate time requirements

Successful Performance Indicators

High performing command transition programs share three common performance indicators necessary to ensure VOW/CRS compliance:

1. A Commanding General Policy Letter and incorporated BDE/BN/CO Policy Letters.
2. A commander notification process identifying transitioning Soldiers eligible for SFL-TAP services.
3. Ensuring early and frequent Soldier engagement with SFL-TAP 12 – 18 months prior to transition.

Reinforcement of What Leaders Need to Do

- Appoint a Unit Transition Point of Contact to work SFL-TAP requirements
- Ensure Soldiers create an Individual Development Plan, and the chain of command and career/education counselors review it.
- Run monthly 12 - 18-month loss rosters to identify eligible Soldiers and compare with ACAP XXI.
- Provide sufficient time to participate in the transition programs.
 - Pre-separation briefing online (www.acap.army.mil)
 - Initial Counseling appointment (DD Form 2648/-1)
 - DOL Employment Workshop, VA Benefits Briefings I & II, Resume building and additional services
- Ensure Soldiers keep their appointments!

ACAP XXI Commander Reporting

- ACAP XXI is the Army's system of record for a Soldier's transition activity.
 - Commanders will obtain the information necessary to effectively manage their Soldiers in transition by reviewing ACAP XXI reports.
 - Commanders and their designee(s) are authorized to receive monthly ACAP XXI commanders reports. Designee(s) can be anyone (military/civilian) the respective commander requires to be informed on Soldier transition activity.
 - Commanders must coordinate with their local SFL-TAP Center at (Insert local email) or the SFL-TAP Technical Support Center at ACAPTechnicalSupport@serco-na.com to receive ACAP XXI reports.

Note, commanders and their designees must provide their name, AKO user name, government email, UIC, unit name, and location information to register and receive monthly reports via email.
